FOR CUBA'S FREEDOM

Senate Foreign Committee Vote In Favor of Cuba's Independence.

SECRETARY OF STATE OLNEY.

Right to Recognize a New State Rests
With the President—Senator Morgan
Opposed to Annexation—No Demands
Have Been Made In the Competitor
Case—Consul General Lee's Report.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The meeting of the senate committee on foreign relations was important in two respects. It resulted in an agreement to report the Cameron resolution for the recognition of Cuban independence and it developed through the statement of Secretary Olney the administration's policy in regard to the insurrection in Cuba.

The secretary occupied the greater part of the time of the meeting answering questions and suggestions made by members of the committee. He and Senator Morgan engaged in general spirited colloquies. Mr. Olney made two points against the Cameron resolution as follows: (1) That the Cuban insurgents have established no government.
(2.) That the right to recognize a new state rests with the president, independent of congressional action.

He contended in elaboration of the first point that the pretended government of the island was without habitation.
"Suppose you recognize the independence of the island," he said, "what are you going to do with it?"

"For one," replied Senator Morgan,
"while advocating this recognition want it understood that I am opposed to annexation."

"How then, would you maintain its independence?" asked the secretary, himself becoming interlocutor. "How would you for instance prevent Spanish domination over the island?"

"I would," replied the Alabama senator,
"establish, if need be, a protectorate.
I would follow much the same policy that we are pursuing with regard to Hawaii, and I would send an army of occupation to the island if necessary as we did in the case of Mexico."

The secretary made the impression upon some of the members of the committee by the way he pursued this line of inquiry that while he was disposed to hold out strongly for the president's privilege, he was not nearly so strongly opposed to Cuban independence as he had been a year ago, and that he would be entirely reconciled to it if satisfied as to the future course to be pursued. He did not dissent strongly from a point made that his own report showed a sufficient cause for action and he admitted that a state of affairs which permits the killing of American citizens and the destruction of American property was deplorable.

"They are, however," he added,
"the incidents of war."

"Not of war properly conducted but
of anarchy," was the response.

The secretary sat at rest the story which had been very industriously circulated that Consul General Lee has provided the state department with an elaborate report on the condition of affairs in Cuba. "It is not true," he said,
"General Lee has made no general written report at all. He has made reports on several special cases, but not on the situation as a whole."

It also developed during the examination that the government had made no demand in the case of the Competitor and in other cases of similar character before requests for information.

While the committee will report the resolution as agreed upon Monday, it is not expected that the question will be pressed until after the holidays. The disposition of the committee will be to press the resolution to a speedy determination as soon as possible after the question is once taken up for debate.

PRIVATE BILL DAY.

House Passed Five of Them at Its Session Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—This was private bill day in the house but most of the session was devoted to the passage of the 87 pension and relief bills favorably acted upon by the committee of the whole last Friday. The bill to pay Flora A. Darling, the wife of a confederate general, $5,683 for Tennessee and Louisiana bank notes taken from her in 1864 was introduced by Mr. Oliver Simon Boliver Buckner of Kentucky, recently candidate for vice president on the gold

Democratic ticket, and ex-Congressman William D. Bynum of Indiana, chairman of the national committee of the National Democratic party were at the Fifth Avenue hotel yesterday.

Chairman Bynum said to a reporter that the National Democratic party intends to continue the fight for sound money, and the establishment of permanent headquarters in New York is for the purpose of the distribution, thoroughly and systematically, of sound money literature.

McKinley's Movements.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—Major McKinley went to Evansville yesterday afternoon and remained over night as the guest of C. G. Dawes. The morning was spent rather quietly, and there were few callers. He visited the board of trade and remained there for about 15 minutes.

Tomorrow morning Major McKinley will go to the Sixth Presbyterian church.

Major and Mrs. McKinley expect to be with the major's mother Christmas day, and they will leave for Canton Monday morning.

To Avoid the Tariff.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—During the coming week large quantities of provisions, principally lard, hams, and bacon, will be shipped from this city to Cuba in order to be entered before Jan. 1. On that date General Weyler's order raising the tariff on imports 5 per cent goes into effect and it is to this increase that Cuban merchants have hurried their orders. Thousands of tierces of lard and hams and boxes of bacon are being hurried off.

THREE FRIENDS' EXPEDITION.

Passenger on the Steamer Olivette Says There Is No Longer Any Doubt of Ma-ceo's Death—Letters That Should Be In the New York Junta's Hands—Another Battle.

TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 19.—Roberto Solar, who spent 17 months in the insurgent camp of Colonel Raoul Arango, in the provinces of Havana and Matanzas, arrived on the steamer Olivette last night.

Mr. Solar, in an interview, said: "I was told before leaving Havana that the last expedition of the Three Friends had been successfully landed on Tuesday night.

I believe the report to be true, as official circles in Havana were greatly agitated that night. There can no longer be any doubt that Maceo is dead.
I saw a letter which should now be in the hands of the junta at New York from Brigadier Adolfo Castillo, who is fighting in Havana province, stating positively that Maceo had been killed by Spanish treachery. He did not give any particulars, saying that he would forward them in a few days, or as soon as he was satisfied that he had obtained the true story. I also saw the accredited agent in Havana and he told me that Maceo was dead, but that his death was surrounded with mystery. I can not doubt this proof.

"The conditions in Cuba are such that the Spaniards have dominion only over that part of the island on which they stand; this is principally the cities.
The entire country is in possession of the insurgents even that immediately surrounding Havana. The talk of the insurgents being starved out is ridiculous."

"The world may not believe it, but the Spanish authorities are drowning some of their prisoners at Playa del Chivo (beach of the goal) near Havana.
Those whom they drown they declare belong to a secret negro society called 'Nanigoes,' but as a fact they class any one as Nanigoes if they wish to drown them. The victims are taken out in boats, their hands tied up to their neck, and a weight fastened to them, so that when they are thrown overboard they float head downward into the water, which is alive with sharks."

A Key West dispatch says: Reports from Havana state that the Spanish soldiers in the Pinar del Rio section are deserting quite rapidly, that sickness on the trocha and desertions have made reinforcement necessary there. Weyler is keeping all the troops he can in Havana. The news from Matanzas' province is disquieting.

The palace officials refuse information as to the results of the engagements at Toco and Purgatorio this week. It is known that the Spanish lost many men and much provisions, arms and ammunition. At Neavaraz in these engagements a large detachment of insurgents gathered Tuesday and the Spaniards, under Colonel Jose Inglatez, attacked them.

The insurgents ambushed and outflanked the Spaniards, sending them flying after two hours' fighting.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

He Will Hold a Reception at Georgetown This Evening.

GEORGETOWN, S. C., Dec. 19.—The mapha launch "Water Lily" came up from the president's headquarters yesterday bringing Dr. O'Reilly and Captain Lamberton who came to inform Mayor Morgan of Mr. Cleveland's acceptance of the invitation extended by the citizens of Georgetown asking for the opportunity of again showing their regards for him. The schedule arranged will bring the party into Georgetown in the tender "Wistaria" at 4 o'clock today. The president will be conveyed to the old historic building "The Winyah Indigo Hall," in which place he will hold a public reception. Afterward he and party will be driven to the depot where they will board the special car "Coronet" for Washington which should be reached early tomorrow morning. The shooting yesterday was exceptionally fine, Mr. Cleveland bagging 58 ducks.

John R. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean. The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes it incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

Favor of Cuba's Independence.

With the President—Senator Morgan
Have Been Made in the Competitor
Case—Consul General Lee's Report.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The meeting
of the senate committee on foreign relations
was important in two respects. It resulted in an agreement to report the Cameron resolution for the recognition
of Cuban independence and it developed
through the statement of Secretary Olney that the administration's policy in regard to the insurrection in Cuba.

The secretary occupied the greater
members of the committee. He and
spirited colloquies. Mr. Olney made two points against the Cameron resolution
as follows: (1) That the Cuban insurgents have established no government. (2) That the right to recognize a new state rests with the president, in dependent of congressional action.

He contended in elaboration of the
first point that the pretended government of the island was without habitation. "Suppose you recognize the inde-
are you going to do with it?"

"I for one," replied Senator Morgan,
"while advocating this recognition
to annexation."

"How then, would you maintain its
independence?" asked the secretary,

"I would," replied the Alabama senator,
"establish, if need be, a protectorate.
I would follow much the same policy that we are pursuing with regard to Hawaii, and I would send an army of occupation to the island if necessary as we did in the case of Mexico."

The secretary made the impression
upon some of the members of the com-
of inquiry that, while he was disposed
to hold out strongly for the president's
strongly opposed to Cuban independ-
that he would be entirely reconciled to it if satisfied as to the future course to be pursued. He did not dissent strongly
showed a sufficient cause for action and
can property was deplorable.

"They are, however," he added,
"the incidents of war."

of anarchy," was the response.

which had been very industriously circulated that Consul General Lee had
affairs in Cuba. "It is not true," he said,
"General Lee has made no general

It also developed during the examination that the government had made no demand in the case of the Competitor and in other cases of similar character beyond requests for information.

While the committee will report the
press the resolution to a speedy determina-
question is once taken up for debate.

The nomination of Francis was postponed for consideration until after the recess, as were the nominations of all the Palmer or McKinley Democrats."

ROSWELL G. HORN DEAD.

He Took an Active Part in the Campaign Just Ended—Review of His Life.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Dec. 19.—Ex-Congressman Roswell G. Horn died late last night after an illness of two weeks from bronchitis and Bright's disease.

Roswell G. Horn was born Nov. 26, 1830, in Waitsville, Vt. He derived his education in the public schools, and when young moved to Elyria, O. In 1850 he married Miss Carrie Pinney of Elyria. He in 1854

was admitted to the bar. One year later he moved to St. Louis and went into the mining business.

In 1857 he took up his home in Saginaw, Mich., from which district he was elected to congress on the Republician ticket in 1878, and served with distinction three successive terms. In 1890 he moved to Plainfield and became a member of the editorial staff of the New York Tribune, which position he has held ever since. His joint debate in Chicago with W. H. Harvey, author of "Colin's Financial School," attracted much attention. When the national Republican campaign committee called for speakers last fall, he was one of the first to respond, and made over 90 speeches in the presidential campaign before he was taken ill with bronchitis.

The man who has sworn never to cut his hair until Bryan is elected president will someday rival Samson with his flowing locks.

Our store windows are putting on gala airs in preparation of old Santa Claus annual visit, and the next few days will probably see some fine displays.

It seems that the administration is urging the committee to use patience in dealing with Cuba. The committee, however, seems little inclined to waste time in declaring the independence of Cuba.

GOVERNOR MATTHEWS will soon be free to return to his Vermillion county farm and contemplate his political future. He is now conscious of some gross political errors that he has made since he began his official career.

DURING the campaign the Salem Democrat earnestly, probably not sincerely, supported Bryan, but now openly opposing free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. Many of the supporters of Bryan during the campaign are doing likewise.

The Lodge immigration bill has passed the senate by a very large majority. The bill has a number of very important provisions which if enforced would keep from this country the illiterate, dangerous, and vicious classes from foreign countries. The trouble with such laws they are not properly enforced.

There is a continued agitation for the next legislature to enact such laws relative to building and loan associations as will make them what they were organized to be. If there are any associations which impose on certain stockholders they should be legislated out of existence.

It seems that a number of Indianapolis citizens want to dictate educational legislation. In what they are proposing they do not seem to think of what would be beneficial to the school interests of the state, but what would be helpful to the schools of Indianapolis. They have a right to be heard and to influence such legislation but not to direct it.

$200,000 of the state debt of Indiana has just been paid. This makes $800,000 paid during the present year. Also $5,575 interest was paid. In April next the republican state officers expect to be able to pay off $340,000 more of the debt. Most of the state's bonds are held by eastern savings banks, and are regarded as very desirable, owing to the good credit of the state.

PERRY S. HEATH, chief of the publication bureau of the McKinley campaign says in answer to what did the greatest work of the canvass, "The literature most effective was the matter supplied to the weekly papers. It was more potent in influencing public opinion than any other literature circulated." It is a compliment to the weekly press of the land, and one deserved.

THE decision of the supreme court that railroad companies cannot be compelled by city ordinances to maintain flagmen at railroad crossings seems to be quite a surprise to many people. Railroad men say, however, that they will not take undue advantage of the decision, but that it will afford them a means of protection in cases where cities undertake to impose on the railroad companies.

SOME of the promoters of the proposed Indiana centennial exposition are still persistent in urging the state to take up the matter and make a success of it no matter what it costs. They do not seem to understand that the people are not demanding such a lavish expenditure of money as an exposition doing justice to Indiana would entail. The present debt of the state better be paid off instead of making it larger.

For Sale.

80 and 50 acre farms. Good sand land, one mile from city.

The fast signature

Now that the owners of the telephone lines in this city are adding many new subscribers and thus making their lines more valuable to their patrons they should seek to extend their system to neighboring towns and cities. The Harrison Telephone company at Columbus is ready to meet the company from this city half way any time. This would not only connect the two cities, but give Seymour connection with Shelbyville, Indianapolis and other points.

The senate committee on foreign relations has unanimously decided to report a resolution to congress favoring Cuban independence. This action was taken against the advice of Secretary Olney. Others whose opinions have great weight in the councils of the nation think the committee has acted hastily. It may be that the resolution is unwise at this time, but it will meet the approval of a vast majority of the people.

A Great State.

Time was, and that not long ago, when Indiana was considered a synonym for all that was rude and crude. Time is when no state in the Union is more talked of in good ways than Indiana. In political affairs Indiana stands in the forefront by having given the country one of the best presidents in the last half century, and by reason of the prominent part played by Indiana democrats in the fight for sound money. We may say also that Indiana has been heard from in a good way in politics in the larger sense through the zeal displayed by the little band of civil service reformers and the publication of the Civil Service Reformer. In literature Indiana has been giving a good account of herself with Edward Eggleston, Lew Wallace, James Whitcomb Riley, Maurice Thompson and others. In art she can point to the unequalled Soldiers' Monument as proof of high good taste; to Modern Art, which has been transplanted, editor and all, to Boston, as proof of appreciation; and to the school of Indiana landscape artists—Steele, Forsyth and Grueell—for achievements of great merit and large promise. In material development through manufacture and trade the state has also been advancing at a constantly increasing pace. Her cities, notably Indianapolis, have been adding in all ways to the security, comfort and beauty of life. It is a good state and a great state is Indiana, and the fame of her has gone out to the ends of the land.—Indianapolis News.
